Discussion Questions

What has challenged you, changed you or confused you from this week's sermon or the book of 1 Chronicles?

Read 1 Chronicles 13:5-14 (about Uzza & the Ark) and then 15:2-4, 12-15 about David's preparation to move the Ark the second time.

- We see David shift from
 1. a place of being angry and fearful of God (13:11-12)
 2. to a place of obedience (the verses from chapter 15)
 3. to a place of praise and thanksgiving (chapter 16)
- What did David think/believe/do to move through that sequence?
- Do you think this change was genuine? Why or why not?

David's shift through that sequence involved a passage of time. If you are close to someone who is in a phase similar to David's phase 1, how can you walk alongside them through it?

In the sermon, Johnny used a number of "Un-" words to describe life:

- Unpredictable
- Unstable
- Unreliable
- Uninteresting
- Unclear
- Unsure
- Uncertain

Have you ever felt like one or more of those words described life for you, or perhaps even God Himself?

What did you do about it? Or if it's a current situation, what can you do about it?

This week, what do you need to think, believe, or do to remain grounded in God's glory?
