Discussion Questions

What has challenged you, changed you, or confused you from this week's sermon or the book of Nehemiah?

Where have you seen the idea played out that "progress prompts opposition"? Perhaps a situation in politics, in business, or in your life?

Take a few moments in your discussion and celebrate the progress you've made. (A prayer or expression of thanks, a song, or just verbally recognizing it!)

Together, list some possible courses of action that can be taken when you experience opposition. Adding "build and battle" to your list, which one(s) might be needed in your current situation?

In what areas of your life do you need to resolve to keep going, to persevere?

What role does having a group of friends who can encourage and help you play? What is one thing you could do this week to strengthen those relationships?

What role could praising God for His goodness play in your resolution to obey Him?
