

Palm Sunday - The Gospel of Mark

Questions

1. Since we do not live in a monarchy, what are some things we have difficulty understanding when we speak of "Jesus as King"?
2. What parts of today's sermon stick out to you? What questions or convictions are stirred in you after hearing the Word proclaimed today?
3. If King Jesus is in control, what are you trusting him with today? What is that situation that seems out of control, but you need reminded that God is in control?
4. How can you display the King's humble service to someone this week?
5. What areas are the most difficult for you to submit to the King?